To Memory

Memory is when you look back and the answers float in
to who? what? when? where?
The members who were there then
are repeated on a screen
are recalled on a scroll
are moved in a miniature drama,
are recollected
for actions, speeches, silences,
set forth by images of the mind
and made in a mingling mist
to do again and to do over precisely what they did do once
this is memory---
sometimes slurred and blurred---
this is remembering sometimes wrecking the images
and proceeding again to reconstruct
what happened and how,
the many little involved answers
to who? what? when? where?
and more involved than any how? How?
---Carl Sandburg

Capable Leadership

We are indeed fortunate to have as our superintendent, Mr. Rayburn O. Richardson.

A constant inspiration and guiding light to students, Mr. Richardson goes beyond the call of duty to be of service.

We thank you for these two years of service and hope that there will be many more just like them.

Helpful Guidance

In his five years here as principal, Mr. Wallace Sneed has won the respect and admiration of the entire student body.

He has aided us in countless ways and we take this opportunity to pay tribute to him. We are indebted to him for his readiness to assist us in our undertakings--be they academic, social, or athletic.

For such fine leadership we say thank you.

CARLISLE 12 H.S. 14 The Panthers defeated the Carlisle Bisons in a game selected by the Arkansas Gazette as one of the best of the week. Ernie Longing scored on a 15 yard run, and Jim Patchell scored on a 10 yard pass from Jerry Todd.

Most of these Cub Scouts are Seniors now.

Little Lamar Hendrix

The less weight people have to support the happier they are.

Climbing the ladder of success??

Sob, sob, sob, sob, sob. Sob means cry.

"We seem to have made a slight mistake," as the Chemist remarked when his lab blew up.

Joe Paul flew fine until he ran out of air.

Pat and Don enjoy dancing while Ernie sits quietly and observes.

"Mr. Stark, you're supposed to watch those Seniors at play practice, aren't you?"

Mr. Olmstead mutters, "Hooray for John Wilkes Booth! Yankee go home!!"

"I hear those angel voices calling.....Old Black Betty."

"Mom, I always thought CHEESECAKE meant....."

Glamour Girl Jackie, Gene the Sucker, and Smart Sandy, who got him to let her ride.
